Update form

On December 4, 2009 a law was adopted providing for specific measures in order to fight crime within the construction industry. This law imposes more stringent conditions for the maintenance or delivery of the contractor's or owner-builder's licence. In particular, the Régie du bâtiment du Québec (RBQ) must ensure that the contractors, their officers, shareholders and lenders have no criminal or tax evasion background, such as defined within the newly enacted statutory dispositions. The body of regulations enclosing these dispositions has taken effect as of June 24.

This guide is designed to follow you through and help you fill out the form entitled "Update" so that you may comply with these new statutory dispositions. We have defined below the meaning of some of the terms employed in this form.

Officer

Indicate only the new officers, or the ones that are no longer part of the company, accordingly. For every one of these persons, indicate his/her full details and status within the company. You must specify if the officer is retiring from the company or joins it, by checking the appropriate box and by indicating the date of commencement or termination of duties, accordingly.

Status of officer

Associate:	A person who is a member of the society and holds shares from it.
Shareholder:	A person who holds shares from a corporate entity or legal person.
Administrator:	A member of the Board of Directors of a corporate entity or legal person, whether the former is or not a member of the executive (President, Vice-President, Secretary or Treasurer).
Officer:	Specifically, a person named by the shareholders or by the Board of Directors, i.e. a person who is a member of the executive of the Board of Directors (President, Vice-President, Secretary or Treasurer) or the Chief Executive Officer (or an equivalent). It is required that the designation of this person be written down in the legal person's records, registers or minutes.
Full time manager:	A person taking part in the management, the administration, the direction or the business organization of a company, provided that the working hours of this person within this company correspond to the work shift and workweek as set out within this company. The identification of this officer is mandatory only if he/she is required to be a guarantor.
Journeyman electrician:	A person who is the holder of the certificate of qualification or competency which this person needs in order to practice the trade of electrician. The journeyman electrician can be considered an officer providing he/she meets the following three (3) criteria: he/she has practiced his/her trade for at least two (2) years and is able to produce a certificate of qualification or competency attesting to it; he/she is a full time salaried worker for the account of the owner-builder; he/she provides leadership of the electrical installation works for the account of the owner-builder.

Mandatory declarations

You must answer every question from this section by checking off the appropriate box.

The tax laws referred to are, namely:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. At the federal level: the Income Tax Act and the Excise Tax Law (GST);</li> <li>2. At the provincial level, the Taxation Act; An Act Respecting the ministère du Revenu; and An Act respecting the Québec sales tax.</li> </ol>
Criminal acts:	Any and all criminal acts the person has been declared guilty of must be indicated, whether related or not to the construction industry.

Declaration from the other shareholders

- Other shareholder: A shareholder holding less than 20% of voting shares or holding non-voting shares.
The new measures set out that any shareholder of a contractor or an owner-builder is henceforth concerned by the provisions related to the previous convictions, regardless of the percentage or nature of the shares held.
- An exception to this rule: If the contractor or the owner-builder is an issuer of security liable to the Securities Act.

Identification of lenders

The contractor and owner-builder must provide to the Régie the list of his/her lenders. He/she must also attach to this list a declaration from each lender whereby the latter gives the name of his/her officers* and indicates if him/herself or his/her officers have been found guilty, during the period of five (5) years preceding the date of the loan, of an offence under any tax law or under any criminal act.

- Lender: A person who grants a loan of money, which excludes loans of property. The loan which is provided according to the new dispositions concerns only the lending of money and not the lending of property. You must identify all your lenders, for the purpose of loans of money, other than banking institutions, Caisses populaires and credit unions, insurance companies, trust companies or saving societies. Furthermore, this disposition does not concern buyer accounts of suppliers of services and materials, shareholder advances, credit lines and cards, nor financial leases.
- Signature: The signatory of the application must be a person assigned by the company and be one of the guarantors.
By his/her signature, the signatory declares formally that the information supplied is accurate and complete, and that it reflects the current and actual situation of the company.

Schedule 1 – Declaration of the lender

Each lender must fill out a Declaration of the lender. If the lender is a corporate entity or a company, the section “Identification of the lender’s officers” must also be filled out, and the lender shall further indicate if anyone one of his/her officers has been declared guilty, during the period of five (5) years preceding the date of the loan, of an offence under any tax law or under any criminal act.

- Signature: The Declaration of the lender must be signed by the lender. If the lender is a corporate entity or a company, this Declaration must be signed by the officer (see definition of officer in the Update form) of the corporate entity or company. This Declaration must then be returned to the guarantor, who shall enclose it with the Update form sent.
